

Soovin Kim- Violin

The exciting young violinist performs chamber music in some of the world's most prominent venues including Carnegie Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, Lincoln Center, Strathmore Hall, and has appeared in concert with the Moscow Symphony Orchestra, followed by a special concert at the American Embassy in Moscow. He has recorded Paganini's demanding 24 Caprices, which he performed in 2006 during the El Paso Pro Musica Chamber Music Festival. He recorded the Schubert Cello Concerto with Janos Starker in a special El Paso Pro Musica concert featuring the esteemed cellist, and the Arensky Cello Quartet with Lynn Harrell in a special CD of the El Paso Pro Musica Chamber Music Festival. He performs on a 1709 "ex-Kempner" Stradivarius.

Ik Hwan Bae- Violin

Born in Seoul, South Korea, Ik Hwan Bae made his professional debut with the Seoul Philharmonic at the age of 12. His performances and recitals have taken him to major cities throughout the United States and Asia. His most recent project is as Concertmaster of the HWAUM Orchestra in Korea, a conductor less String Orchestra. This work has resulted in performances in Krakow, Poland and at the Casals Festival in Puerto Rico. A much sought- after pedagogue, he is a Professor of Violin and Chamber Music at the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University.

