

Universit  Guitar Quartet

Jesus Manuel Flores

The UGQ started in 2016 as a collaborative project between the guitar area faculty members of the University of Texas at El Paso, the Universidad Autonoma de Ciudad Juarez and the Universidad Autonoma de Chihuahua. Its members are Hiram Rodriguez (UTEP-UACJ), Martin Espinoza (UACH), Jesus Manuel Flores (UACH) and Daniel Monroy (UACJ); each one of them has been developing academic activities in their own universities as well as participating in guitar festivals as performers and adjudicators for guitar competitions in Mexico, Europe and Latin America. The ensemble has performed at guitar festivals and competitions that have taken place at the Juarez and Chihuahua Universities in 2016, 2017 and 2018. The quartet has been performing works by several Mexican composers, and currently Joaquin Rodrigo's "Concierto Andaluz" is the new project the UGQ has embarked with and already have been invited to perform with other symphony orchestras in Mexico, like the Orquesta Sinfonica de la UACH.
