

violin by DENISE STARK

Devil's fiddle of gold with decoupage watercolor Red Flames

Denise is an avid art, music and travel enthusiast. She and her husband Ken own La Vina Winery. Over the years she has become renowned for her creative arts of painting and gourmet cooking.

The violin was inspired by the music of Charlie Daniels and his tune "Devil went down to Georgia."

Violin photographed by Carlos D. Luevano