

Dia De Los Muertos by MARGUERITE BYERS

Marguerite (Meg) Byers, born in El Paso is a retired Marketing Executive, “I was thrilled when asked to pickup a paint brush after many years and help support El Paso Symphony Orchestra by painting a violin! This project was a lovely reminder of my enjoyment of drawing and painting.”

Since retiring, Marguerite worked with Acceleron Learning, LLC., The El Paso Museum of Art and area school districts as part of the development team for a not-for-profit children’s book Go, Sí El Paso. The book is a successfully completed project that promotes childhood literacy, artistic expression and cultural exchange. Meg’s interests include visual and performing arts, travel and being able to spend time with family and friends.

Violin photographed by Carlos D. Luevano