

violin by ROBERT DOZAL

Robert is an award-winning multi-media artist whose portraits and landscapes range in style from hyper-realistic to expressionistic. Robert is a graduate of U.T. El Paso and operates Dozal Fine Art Gallery in the historic San Elizario Art District.

He specializes in watercolor, oil, acrylics and has garnered national recognition for charcoal drawing. His charcoal portrait was published in Art Journey: Portraits and Figures, a book featuring some of the best international portrait drawings.

Violin photographed by Carlos D. Luevano