

Erica Spyres is excited to celebrate the holidays with the El Paso community. Originally from the Ozarks, Erica is an actor, singer, and fiddle player in NYC. Most recently, she was seen in the season premiere of Law & Order. She has performed on Broadway in Carousel and Paradise Square, and played Ex-Girlfriend in the 1st National Tour of Once. Internationally, she appeared in the Parisian premiere of Sondheim's Passion conducted by Andy Einhorn at the Théâtre du Châtelet. She has soloed with several orchestras, including the Boston Pops, Arizona Musicfest, Springfield Symphony, Midland Symphony Orchestra, Topeka Symphony, South Dakota Symphony, Greater Newburgh Symphony Orchestra, and the Viennese Opera Ball Orchestra. Erica can be heard in Schmigadoon and Last Week Tonight, and on Sondheim Unplugged Vol. 1 & 2. In addition to performing, Erica recently directed her first opera for the Ozarks Lyric Opera, and loves coaching high schoolers for My College Audition.
