

The primary goal of the El Paso Symphony is to bring the passion of classical music to the El Paso Symphony community. The El Paso Symphony was founded in 1930 and has been heralded for its outstanding artistic achievement and exciting and innovative programming. The El Paso Symphony has received both national and international recognition as a result of its very successful tours of Germany in 1996 and Turkey in 2000, and continues to represent the El Paso region with pride and distinction bringing superior concert music that will both entertain and educate the multi-cultural community of El Paso.

El Paso Symphony patrons have come to expect high quality entertainment. They are well-informed and keenly aware of the best in goods and services. Advertising in the Symphony playbill puts you in touch with an audience who knows and appreciates the finer things in life.

Of the 18,000 patrons who attended the El Paso Symphony's Classical Series:

- 40% make in excess of $60,000 a year
- 69% are married
- 74% are college graduates
- Patronize the finer restaurants and clubs in El Paso on a regular basis.
- Average age of an EPSO patron is 45 years and up.

El Paso Symphony patrons represent our entire region, including southern New Mexico, west Texas, and northern Mexico. These patrons have money to spend and a discriminating taste for quality. Take this opportunity to support the El Paso Symphony and introduce your business to our patrons.

THE EL PASO SYMPHONY PLAYBILL

- Advertising in the El Paso Symphony playbill gives you the opportunity to reach the highest per-capita income audience in the El Paso, Las Cruces, Juárez and Chihuahua area.
- 12,000 programs will be printed for our patrons' use throughout the season. The programs are also distributed to newcomers in our area. Your advertisement will impact EPSO patrons from September through April for twelve classical concerts.
- We offer affordable advertising rates as low as $150.
- Advertisers have a choice of seven color formats and five black & white formats.
